Board to Review Preliminary Financial Plan Findings for the Water, Sewer, and Recycled Water Rate Study

The public is invited to the February 22, 2024 Workshop

Marina, CA — The Marina Coast Water District (MCWD) Board of Directors will review the preliminary financial plan findings for the water, sewer, and recycled water rate study. This will be the first opportunity for the public and the board to review findings from the study. During the workshop, the Board will review and discuss the findings with the independent rate consultant who prepared the study, and with staff.

Anyone interested is welcome. For convenience, there are several ways to participate and learn more.
